New York dealers in stocks and bonds awoke to a realization yesterday that their fears had exaggerated values threatened by the Greece-Turkey war. The early morning brought news of the opening prices in London for American securities at well above Monday night's New York closing.

The opening was about on a parity with London's closing, except that the rush of first purchases in some stocks being so great as to give a range of 1/4 in the initial price was the case in the selling movement. The opening was attended by an almost equal degree of excitement. The day was, in fact, almost an exact reproduction of Monday's opening, with the retrograde movement stopped short of full recovery. The international stocks were naturally the most affected by the London strength, and Louisville & Nashville, which suffered the heaviest loss, showed the sharpest recovery, ending at 28 1/2, against Monday night's closing at 28 1/2. The improvement, though centered in the international stocks, was general throughout the market, the rise reaching a point in many stocks. The quotations for British consols from London were easier, and the index of the real importance attached to the war by those likely to be best informed.

Quotations were also easier in the market, and when it was seen that the fall in the price was only a temporary one, the effects of the war were largely subsided. At the opening of the war between Turkey and Russia, in 1877, the fall in the price of consols was 1/2 per cent, and the advance in the price of the war was 1/2 per cent. The advance in the price of the war

Trade Continues Slow and Prices

Continue to Rule Steady.

Trade on the wholesale streets and on Commission row yesterday showed some improvement over Monday. In all lines firmness in prices is the feature. Sugar is still advancing. Oil and poultry are in good request and hardware men are having a good trade, with firm prices. Food merchants report trade still good. On Commission row fruits and vegetables of all kinds, Irish potatoes excepted, are decidedly firmer.

New York call cream, 14c; skim, 13c; butter, 15c; eggs, 20c; poultry, 25c; and butter are much stronger.

The local grain market is active and prices are firm. Track load yesterday ruled as follows:
